

NCETETA 2015

24th January 2015

The purpose of NCETETA 2015, the National Conference on Engineering, Technology and Architecture, is to bring together students, academicians, researchers, engineers, architects and industrialists to present their papers and discuss on various fields related to real-world problems in the society and find engineering and technological solutions.

Felicitation of Prof. Jagdale sir as a jury member for conference

OBJECTIVES:

To cope up with the challenges posed to professional practices the rapid changes in the field of education particularly of Engg, Technology & Architecture.

To bring together Students, Academicians, Researchers, Engineers, Architects & Industrialists to present their papers.

To discuss on various fields related to real- world problems in the society and find architectural solutions.

PROCESS:

NCETETA received 48 papers from various colleges from all over India like Delhi, Mumbai, Goa, Belgum, Chennai, Bangalore, Pune, and many more to name out of which only 42 papers were selected by the scrutiny committee.

After the inauguration of the conference presentations of the participants were conducted in two different seminar rooms of the department in parallel sessions.

The presentations covered topics like Pedagogy in Architecture, Role of Schools of Architecture for the Development of rural Architecture, Project Management and Architecture, Role of New Techniques and Innovative Materials in Modern Architecture, Mystique Magnetism of Art in Architecture, Space Architecture with Cybertecture etc.

Innovation through cross disciplinary team work Building Management Systems, Biomimicry in Architecture, Sustainable Architecture, Interior designing & Landscape, Architectural Education for 21st century Cybertecture.

Panel discussion by the participants, jury and the experts committee also took place within these two days.

Best paper was selected by the jury on the basis of originality, significance, technical soundness and reference and awarded a prize.

ACHIVEMENT:

The Conference was a grand success with number of students, expertise, professional & academicians interacting with each other sharing their thoughts & research works.

The proceedings are circulated to all the Colleges from India.

Presentation by Prof. Phadtaresir

Presentations by various faculty members and professionals from various places in India

Expert opinion by Prof. Jagdale sir

Valedictory function